OCTOBER 10TH, 2019

DOORS 5:15PM | DINNER 5:30PM
AGM 6PM | SPEAKER 6:30PM

FEATURING SPEAKER CAROLYN KLASSEN

Discussing: "The One Wild and Precious Life of an Occupational Therapist"

Carolyn O. Klassen is a University of Manitoba OT graduate. She has also completed a Master of Arts degree in Marriage, Family, and Child Counselling in Fresno, California. She is a therapist and director at Conexus Counselling. She believes that fundamentally, all of us are wired for connection, and that meaningful relationships have tremendous healing power. Carolyn taught Occupational Therapy students for many years at the University of Manitoba, speaks widely and writes about aspects of connection, including a book and a weekly conversation with Hal Anderson on 680CJOB. She loves lattes, family suppers, sun porches, and watching her sons play sports.
